

Frequently Asked Questions

Ticket Cost: Free admission.

Stages: Bandstand (main) stage and beer tent stage.

Food and Drink – if you need to eat there's a load of food concessions on-site including burgers, hot dogs, barbeque, Thai and Jamaican food, sweet stalls and more. They're all pretty reasonably priced.

Bring-Your-Own-Grub – you're perfectly welcome to bring a picnic and some tinnies instead, the day's definitely suited to it. There's a strict no-barbeques and no-open-flames rule, we'll only have to send a steward over with a fire extinguisher to put it out.

Beer Tent – there's no restrictions on age in the beer tent, which is also home to the second stage.

Travelling to Clarence Park

Buses : from the city centre pass the festival site regularly – the 128, 436, 443, 444 and 446 pass the festival site on Denby Dale Road (get off near the Queens Arms pub) or get off on Horbury Road using the 119, 126 or 127 and walk through Thornes Park.
